

OKMULGEE HAS FIRST HOME GUARD IN STATE

Unit Now Numbers Eighty Men; Company Plans to Build Large Armory.

Special to The World.
OKMULGEE, Okla., Nov. 19.—Following successful Red Cross, Liberty loan and Y. M. C. A. drives, Okmulgee presents the first Home Guard unit in the state, completely equipped with uniforms, rifles, belts and bayonets.

Credit for the organization of the company goes to the untiring efforts of Captain P. M. Wood and his two lieutenants, R. P. Short and N. T. Dyer, who have worked incessantly since their commissions were received. Captain Wood has divided the work in the company and has four busy departments with First Lieutenant Short in charge of the company training, Second Lieutenant Dyer in charge of the noncommissioned officers' school, First Sergeant O. E. Stansbury with company clerk, W. C. Cox in charge of the clerical work and Quartermaster Sgt. O. E. Sherrill.

handling the issuing of equipment. All of the above men have had experience and are proving themselves equal to all occasions.

The company is enlisted to eighty men with 25 men on the reserve list waiting to be added as soon as more equipment is received.

The company is drilling twice a week, on Wednesday nights and Sunday afternoons.

Over $3,000 has been collected for this company by a committee from the County Council of Defense, headed by Senator S. L. Johnson.

A movement is now on foot to build a large armory with a dirt floor, with the necessary officers' quarters, quartermaster's rooms, lockers and gun racks.

The noncommissioned personnel of the company is as follows:

First sergeant, O. E. Stansbury; quartermaster, Sgt. O. E. Sherrill; sergeant, Sgt. O. A. Lambert; sergeants, Hugh Murphy, M. A. Dennis; corporals, L. H. D. Cook, R. G. Harned, R. B. Ward, L. B. Norton, D. E. Schock, R. R. Garrison, R. C. Updegraff, J. A. Davis.

EDITOR BEFORE "AD CLUB"

John Fields Will Speak at Regular Weekly Luncheon.

Members of the Tulsa Ad club will at noon today hear an address by John Fields, editor of the Oklahoma Farmer, a journal for agriculturists printed at Topeka, Kan. Fields, who was a candidate for governor of Oklahoma at the time the present incumbent was elected, is a forceful speaker and is an advertising authority.

In addition to this address the club members will be given an opportunity to discuss the recent lectures delivered by Frank Stockdale of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, according to an announcement released yesterday.

A Smooth, White Skin That Defies Weather

During the coming months of biting winds and intense cold you who would keep your skin smooth, white and velvety, should turn your attention to Pompeian Night Cream. Nothing else will so effectively remove a chapped, roughened or discolored surface. By gradually absorbing the weather-beaten cuticle, the complexion is kept in perfect condition, and even the beauty of expression appears more pronounced.

If your skin be blotchy, pimply, freckled, coarse, sallow or over-richly not shed it. One ounce of ordinary mercerized wax, to be had at any drugist's, will completely transform the most unsightly complexion in less than a fortnight. Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.—Adv.

BILL ROGERS GOES TO COUNTY FOR ATTENTION

Faces Charge of Conjoint Robbery; Was Arrested by Policeman Floor.

Bill Rogers, alleged "stick-up" and liquor runner, who broke loose again Saturday night and was arrested with one of his pals, Harry Davis, on a charge of holding up and robbing John Cook, H. W. Bryan, and R. L. Long and relieving them of all their cash, was turned over to the county yesterday on a warrant issued out of Justice Lee Daniel's court, charging conjoint robbery.

The officers are determined to give Bill the limit this time and try to place him where his "stick-up" activities will be curbed for quite a while. The offense of conjoint robbery carries one of the severest penalties known to the Oklahoma statutes, the maximum penalty being thirty years in the state prison.

Rogers and Davis were arrested at Second and Main Saturday night by Officer Wade Foor, shortly after they had perpetrated the hold-up.

OKLAHOMA CITY GIRL FALLS FROM WINDOW; IS KILLED

Adelaide Henshaw Daughter of Former Member of Oklahoma Corporation Commission.

ST. CHARLES, Mo., Nov. 19.—Miss Adelaide Henshaw, 27 years old, of Oklahoma City, a student at Lindenwood college, was found dead today beneath a dormitory window. Other girls in the school think she fell from the window sill while asleep. She was the daughter of George Henshaw, a lawyer of Oklahoma City.

Dr. John L. Roemer, president of the college, testified at the inquest that after the body of Miss Henshaw was found he went to the room where Miss Henshaw last was seen alive, and found that the screen had been raised. Dr. Roemer said that when he talked with Miss Henshaw Sunday night he found her homesick and disappointed that her father had not visited her last Friday. Her mother was here Friday but returned home Saturday. The girl said she expected to be taken home, said Dr. Roemer. Several pupils testified that Miss Henshaw was in the habit of sitting in the window after complaining that she could not sleep.

AN AMMONIA TANK EXPLODES

Grocery Store Is Put Out of Commission for Two Hours.

Improper manipulation of valves attached to the refrigerating system of the Overton Grocery yesterday afternoon caused an explosion of a 55-pound ammonia tank. No damage was done to the building. However, the escaping fumes put the entire establishment out of commission for a period of more than two hours.

For a time business was transacted on the curb. The entire corps of clerks was compelled to seek the sidewalk because of the strong fumes of the escaping gas and wants of customers were taken care of in front of the store.

An employee of the store wearing a gas helmet obtained from the fire department at length entered the basement, shutting off the leaking pipes and the store was made habitable after electric fans had been in operation for a time.

NASTY MEDICINES BAD FOR CHILDREN

It is not often a child requires medicine of any kind. If the bowels are regular and promptly disposed of undigested matter discarded by the stomach, the general health is very apt to be excellent. In any case, pills, powders, and nauseating or unpalatable compounds, should never be given to children. Any therapeutic remedies may possess a largely nullified by the youngsters' natural antagonism.

For most children a mild laxative, administered occasionally is all that is needed to assure normal regularity and good health. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a pleasant-tasting combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiate or narcotic drugs, and acts gently yet effectively; children like it and take it readily, so that it is the ideal remedy for the family medicine chest. It is sold in large size for fifty cents a bottle. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 1114 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

Little Benny's Notebook

By LEE PAPE

Puds Simkins and Leroy Shooster came around after supper yesterday, Puds telling us about the Swiss mountaineers he saw in the movies climbing up the mountains tied together by ropes.

What do they tie themselves together with ropes for? I sed, and Puds sed, So if one falls down and gets killed they all will. And Leroy Shooster sed, G. lets us play Swiss mountaineers, wares a rope?

Which I got a long one off of the clothes line and I tied one end of it around my waist and Leroy Shooster tied the middle of it around his and Puds tied the other end around his, and we started to climb up the stairs, everything being dark on account of somebody having forgot to lite the hall lites, and when I got near the top of the first flite, I called back, Is all well, mates?

Alls well in the middle, Leroy Shooster called up.

Alls well on the end, Puds Simkins called up. Wich jest then I herd pop starting to come down from the 3rd floor and I called back low, Mums the word, mates, danger ahead.

Mums the word in the middle, whispered Leroy Shooster, and Puds Simkins whispered, Mums the word on the end. And pop kept on coming down in the dark, saying to himself, Its a wonder some intelligent persin woodent lite these hall lites, I never saw such a house. And he went past me with seeing me and kept on going a little ways and then I felt a fearse jerk around my waist, being pop tripping over the rope and banging into the banisters, saying, Well for the love of Peet, ferst its one thing and then its 2, wat in the name of assasination is this?

Its me playing Swiss mountaineer, pop, I sed.

O, are you present, sed pop, well, you didnt quite kill me, I suppose, and as long as it seems like in the interest of educational travel, we will let it pass. And he kept on going down and he went past the 2nd Swiss mountaineer without seeing him and pritty soon I felt a even fearse jerk, being pop banging into the banisters again and pulling Leroy Shooster down on top of him and me down on top of Leroy Shooster in the middle of the stairs, which if the banisters hadent of bin there for pop to hold on to, sumthing fearse nite of happened, and pop was had seduced her under promise of marriage, but she did not set up an "unwritten law" plea. She admitted she was in the pool hall with the pistol concealed about her clothes, but said she did not intend to kill Kimmins, going there only to try to persuade him to carry out his promise.

When her lover appeared, she said he tried to take the pistol away from her and in the scuffle it was discharged, the bullets entering Kimmins' body and causing almost instant death.

Annie established her reputation for previous good character and chastity by a number of witnesses who went on the stand.

BOX GAME FRAUD EXPOSED

More Than Fifty Persons Swindled. Losing Upward of $150,000.

NEW YORK.—A new version of the gold brick game, which the police assert has netted its authors upward of $150,000, was barred by the detectives of the Fourth branch, when they arrested Isadore Jaffe, a jeweler of 89 Clinton street, and Joseph Bleck, salesman, of 106 Delancey street.

A number of persons who said they had been victimized made a rush at the prisoners when they faced them in the detective house, and only by the work by the police prevented the infuriated men from wrecking their vengeance on the trembling pair.

According to Captain McKenna, more than fifty persons in New York were swindled by the two prisoners. Victims also have been heard from in Brooklyn, Cleveland, New York, Hoboken and Milwaukee, and complaints are still pouring in.

The game, McKenna said, was worked in this way. Jaffe and Bleck each carrying a little wooden box would enter a tailor shop and ask to have a button sewed on a coat. While talking to the tailor they would open one of the boxes and show a glister of gold, a collection of gold bars and gold nuggets. They would explain that they had just come from Mexico and smuggled the gold over the border, in consequence they paying no duty. They were anxious to dispose of the gold, they said, but did not know how to go about it. They added they would pay a liberal commission if the tailor would act as the broker in the transaction. They also agreed to let any jeweler called in to apply the acid test to the bars and the nuggets.

Few if any of the tailors failed to rise to the bait, altho all insisted that the gold be tested, which was done. Then the strangers would insist that the tailor put up a cash security for the gold left in his possession, and many of them readily agreed. A lightning shift was then made by the owners of the gold, and when the tailors opened the box following the departure of his visitors he would find that it contained pure and unadulterated brass instead of the gold he had tested.

TRY TO WRECK STEAMER

Rope Holding Ship to Dock Cut While Engines Being Tested.

MANITOWOC, Wis., Nov. 19.—An attempt was made today to wreck the steamer Warcastle, under construction at the yards of the Manitowoc Shipbuilding company, a government yard for Norwegian interest.

While the engines were being tested, the boat being held by two lines attached to the docks, one of the ropes was cut.

The steamer was a few yards from a steel bridge and had it torn loose from the one line it probably would have crashed into the bridge.

ANNIE BROWN GOES TO TRIAL

Colored Woman Is Charged With Having Killed Sweetheart.

Annie Brown, the young negroess who shot and killed her lover, E. L. Williams, one night last August in Williams' pool hall, pleaded not guilty and accidental shooting when she went to trial in the district court before Judge Conn Linn yesterday morning.

Annie, telling her story to the jury, said Williams had seduced her under promise of marriage, but she did not set up an "unwritten law" plea. She admitted she was in the pool hall with the pistol concealed about her clothes, but said she did not intend to kill Kimmins, going there only to try to persuade him to carry out his promise.

When her lover appeared, she said he tried to take the pistol away from her and in the scuffle it was discharged, the bullets entering Kimmins' body and causing almost instant death.

"IS NOTHING LESS THAN WONDERFUL"

Gains Nineteen Pounds and Health Is Restored After Long Suffering.

"I think it's nothing less than wonderful for three bottles of any medicine to restore a man's health, besides adding nineteen pounds to his weight, but that is exactly what Tanlac did for me," said George B. Monarrat, a well-known salesman for the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. in Memphis, Tenn., a few days ago.

"I was in poor health for a year," continued Mr. Monarrat, "and my stomach was in such an awful fix that everything disagreed with me, and soon after eating I would have terrible gripping pains. My nervous system was affected and I could hardly ever get a good night's sleep."

"I heard so much about Tanlac that I decided to give it a trial and, positively, by the time I had used up about half my first bottle I began to get straightened out and was feeling fine.
